FAQ

Can my child trial a class before enrolling?

Every student is able to complete a trial lesson before committing to enrolling for the year. We find that this is the best way to make sure that the class is suitable for you and your child and that they enjoy it. Register your interest today and we will get back to you as soon as we can to arrange your trial lesson.

Does my child need to attend classes regularly?

It is essential that classes are attended consistently. If students frequently miss classes, it is difficult for them to catch up on what they may have missed and it is also difficult for other students to work around those who are missing. Dancing is a team sport like any other.

What does my child bring/wear to class?

- KDC Uniform
- Bring a Bottle of Water
- Correct Dance Shoes
- Shoes to wear to and from class (different from dance shoes)

How is information relayed to Parents?

We rely heavily on our Facebook Group, Email and Social Media to get our information out! It is important that we have your best email contact and that you check your emails regularly. Make sure that you have joined our KDC Information Facebook Group. We often post on social channels with the latest news so make sure you like us on Facebook and follow us on Instagram.

Is it compulsory to do dance exams?

Examinations are compulsory for all Jazz, Tap, Acrobatics and Classical students. Students who sit exams are selected by the teacher. Jazz, Tap & Acrobatics exams are held in the June / July holidays and Classical exams are usually held in August. Extra fees are required for exams.
